A National Newspaper  of Great-Circulation and Influence" George W. Norris Governor Federal Reserve Bank

"I AM PROUD THE PUBLIC LEDGER IS PUBLISHED IN PHILADELPHIA"

> —Chas. S. Calwell, President, The Corn Exchange National Bank.

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK, OF PHILADELPHIA

"I think that the development of The Public Ledger has had no parallel. * * * From a second-rate local paper of very limited circulation it has become a national, and it might almost be said an international

"It is evident that no expense is spared to secure all the news of the world, and to present this news fully and fairly. The growth in circulation has been attained without any of those devices which 'must make the judicious grieve.'

"Whether a reader's principal interest may be in business news, in sports, in literature, in politics or in household and women's interests, The Public Ledger should fully satisfy his wants.

"Best of all, the paper is clean, fearless and incorruptible, and progressive in the best sense of that much-abused word, without ever being radical or demagogical."

"Gentlemen: Please arrange to send the Public Ledger, both daily and Sunday, during the month of August, to me at Milford Lake Camps, Nova Scotia.

CORN EXCHANGE NATIONAL BANK

"I find even in vacation time, back in the woods, that "The Public Ledger' is stimulating and refreshing and adds much to the vacation enjoyment. When the mail comes in, there is 'The Public Ledger' to keep me in touch, not only with the dear old City of Philadelphia, but with world-wide news of interest to all.

"I am proud that the Public Ledger is published in the City of Philadelphia and I am glad it is so progressive in advancing our City's interests."

"The Public Ledger is to be commended for the thoroughness with which it collects news from the principal centers all over the world, and for its intelligent and attractive method of presenting that news.

"It has retained the high character which it had for so many years under George W. Childs . . ., and has broadened its outlook and extended its interest in world news and comments.

"Its news seems to be edited with discrimination; its interpretation of significant events seems sane; its general editorial policy, so far as I have observed, is sound."

Very sincerely yours,
